Wire and Tool AUCTION

No Wire and Tool Auction November/December 2023

The mail bid auction was discussed during the Symposium. A few future changes will be coming to the auction. More on this discussion will be in the Symposium report for members of the Symposium and will be provided in future issues. You may also check out the website for additional updates and information.

Your support of the hobby and society is much appreciated, and we look forward to hosting the next auction in a future issue.
